

Dearham Monday 26th

Dear Caroline.

Have you seen the "Voice from the Jail?" Leaving that you may not - showing your taste for fine writing, I have not been willing to defer your pleasure till this afternoon, when I shall be in town, but hasten to dispatch it by M^{rs} Q.
I have marked the fine papers that you may lose no time.
The "Lays" will now how to hide their diminished heads.
Excuse me as you are among

The sweets of peace program I think you must allow that in ^{repects} ~~fact~~ these excel them all.

Bro. Nass' story of the "Cunning bird" will no longer be regarded as the figment of an excited imagination. I trust, however, that whenever Withfield propose to make the extraordinary demonstration suggested to him by Pillsbury that he will give us due notice that we may be there to see.

I know not whether there be three - how sure was or not, but I am sure that their prove has.

Yours well in haste

E. Z.

Miss Weston

1100-26 - no year

Ms. A. 9. 2. 15. 96